

COMMUNITY GROUP POSITION DESCRIPTIONS

Aid Stations

Each group will be assigned a particular aid station to manage along the length of the course. There are eight aid stations on Saturday 3 July and 16 aid stations in operation on Sunday 4 July. Your role will be to set up, pack up and operate the aid station. You will be providing participants with cups of water and some aid stations will also provide Endura sports drink, Endura gels and first aid supplies.

Road Marshals

The main role as a Road Marshal is to protect the safety of runners. In conjunction with Police and Traffic Controllers, the role is to prevent unauthorized vehicles, pedestrians and cyclists from entering the course and placing runners at risk.

Exit Tents

This role takes place within the Recovery Area in which all participants pass through on their exit after they have crossed the finish line. Community groups will be positioned at one of the exit tents (Small, Medium or Large/Extra Large) and you will hand out finishers t-shirts and medals to the participants.

Recovery Refreshments

This role also takes place within the recovery area and you are the first stop for participants after they cross the finish line. You will be responsible for cutting up fruit and distributing to participants in addition to bottled water.

Start Line Attendants

The role of the Start Line Attendant is to assist in the management of the start line area. This involves crowd control, access management, directional duties, manning the start line aid station and a range of other associated tasks.

Start Line Loading Zone Attendants

Volunteers part of this group will be split across five start zones (A, B, C, D & E). Your role will be assisting participants to enter the correct zone along the start chute. Many participants do not understand how large the start zones are and they head towards the start line, when their start zone could be a lot further north or south.

Bump Out Crew

The bump out crew is required on Sunday 4 July after all races are finished. They assist with the removal of signage and pack down.
